

KEY INVESTOR INFORMATION DOCUMENT

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT OUR PRODUCTS

Purpose: This document provides you with key information about this investment product. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature, risks, costs, potential gain and losses of this product and to help you compare it with other products.

Product Name: CFD on Shares

Product Manufacturer: GBE Brokers Limited. GBE Brokers Ltd, is regulated by the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission (CySEC) with CIF License number 240/14. CFH Clearing is a London based Firm regulated by the FCA with license number 481853.

Alert: You are about to purchase a product that is complex in terms of valuation and may be difficult to understand.

What is this product?

Type: CDFs on Shares without cash settlement and/or physical delivery.

A contract for difference (“CFD”) is a leveraged contract entered into with 10TradeFX on a bilateral basis, settled in cash. It allows an investor to speculate on rising or falling prices on an underlying share. Public companies or companies listed on the stock market like LSE, NASDAQ, DAX, WALLSTREET etc. are issuing shares for the public and are tradable in the Stock market. Trading OTC CFDs on shares with 10tradefx does not necessarily mean that you will actually buy this share(s) from the issuer but you are rather entering into a contract with another entity, our Liquidity Providers (please see above) and speculating that the value of the share(s) will go up or down accordingly.

10TradeFX is a trade name of Holiway Investments LTD(hereinafter the "Company") is a registered Cypriot Investment Firm authorised and regulated by the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission (hereinafter the "CySEC") with license no. 248/14. "Contract for Differences" (CFDs) are usually leveraged products. Trading Over-The-Counter (OTC) CFDs related to commodities, Forex, Indices and Shares, carries a high level of risk and can result in the loss of all of your investment. As such, CFDs may not be appropriate and/or suitable for all investors. You should not invest money that you cannot afford to lose. Before deciding to trade, you should be aware of all the risks associated with OTC CFDs trading, and seek advice from an independent and suitably licensed financial advisor. Past performance does not constitute a reliable indicator of future results. Future forecasts do not constitute a reliable indicator of future performance. General information and/or recommendations provided by the Company should not be interpreted as investment advice.

CFDs are leveraged products and leverage is customized and set by the client. At the end of the day any open positions are rolled over and charged a daily swap fee. Please note that margin trading requires extra caution, because whilst you can realize large profits if the price moves in your favor, you risk extensive losses if the price moves against you. Failure to deposit additional funds in order to meet the maintenance margin requirements as a result of a negative price movement, may result in the CFD being auto-closed. This will occur when your remaining account equity falls below the maintenance margin requirement.

The CFD on shares does not have a pre-defined maturity date and is therefore open-ended. 10TradeFX retains the ability to unilaterally terminate any CFD contract where it deems that the terms of the contract have been breached.

Objectives: The objective of the CFD is to allow an investor to gain leveraged exposure to the movement in the value of the underlying share (whether up or down), without owning the physical share. The exposure is leveraged since the CFD only requires a small proportion of the notional value of the contract to be put down upfront as initial margin. For example, if an investor buys 1 lot of Amazon shares this equals to 1 amazon share current value ex. ($1,627) with initial margin of 5% the initial investment will be $81 or the equivalent in your account's currency. The effect of leverage, in this case is 1:20. Based on the trade size above for each 1$ change in the price of the underlying share the value of the CFD changes by $1. For instance, if the investor holds a long position and the market increases in value, $1 profit will be made for every 1$ increase in that market. However, if the market decreases in value, $1 loss will be incurred for each dollar the market decreases in value. Conversely, if an investor holds a short position, a profit is made in line with any decreases in that market, and a loss for any increases in the market.

CFDs in general do not have a recommended holding period and it is down to the discretion of each individual investor to determine the most appropriate holding period based on their own individual trading strategy and objectives.

Intended Retail Investor: Two categories:

- 1) CFDs are intended for investors who have knowledge of, or are experienced with, leveraged products and that understand how the prices of CFDs are derived, the key concepts of margin and leverage, the fact that losses may exceed deposits and have the appropriate financial means to bear losses of the entire amount invested.
- 2) CFDs are intended for investors who have less knowledge, or are less experienced with, leveraged products and that have an understanding on how the prices of CFDs are derived, the key concepts of margin and leverage, the fact that losses may exceed deposits and have the appropriate financial means to bear losses of the entire amount invested.

What are the risks and what could I get in return by trading in leveraged CFDs?

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for one calendar month, but could equally represent one day. It is based on historical data, and where historical data has not been available on synthetic data. It demonstrates the overall level of risk in comparison to other possible trading opportunities for this market, but is no guarantee on the level of risk that you may encounter.

Category 1 is not risk free; it is merely a lower and less volatile market to trade based on historical data.

1= lowest / 2= low / 3= medium-low / 4= medium / 5= medium-high / 6= second-highest / 7= highest risk class.

- For this market the risk indicator is set at 7, which poses a very high risk because:
 - It is volatile and is subject to wild swings.
 - Spread may widen with reduced liquidity. You could lose your entire investment.
 - You could lose more than your initial investment.

Be aware of currency risk: If your account currency is different to the profit or loss currency (in this case EURO) then you will also have additional currency risk in trading this product dependent on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

The total loss cannot exceed the amount deposited with us as we offer Negative Balance Equity Protection (“NBP”).

Leveraged trading magnifies the losses of price movements and failure to deposit additional funds may result in the CFD being auto-closed. You are also subject to risks related to internet failures, communications failures and delays or account password theft.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance, so you could lose some or all of your investment. If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment. However, you may benefit from a consumer protection scheme (see the “Investors Compensation Fund” Policy). The indicator shown above does not consider this Performance scenarios: The scenarios shown illustrate how your investment could perform. You can compare them with the scenarios of other products. The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past on how the value of this investment varies and are not an exact indicator. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you hold the CFD. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where we are not able to pay you.

The following assumptions on Amazon share, have been used to create the scenarios in Table 1:

*The loss is restricted to your account balance as we offer negative balance equity protection.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself. If you have been sold this product by someone else, or have a third party advising you about this product, these figures do not include any cost that you pay to them. The figures do not consider your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What happens if Holiway Investments Limited is unable to pay out?

If Holiway Investments Limited is unable to meet its financial obligations to you, you may lose the value of your investment. However, Holiway Investments Limited segregates all retail client funds from its own money in accordance with the CySEC's Client Asset rules. Should segregation fail, your investment is covered by the Investor Compensation Fund ("ICF") for the Clients of Cyprus Investment Firms ("CIFs"), which covers eligible investments up to €20,000 per person, per firm.

What are the costs?

Before you begin to trade CFDs on an FX pair you should familiarise yourself with all one-off and ongoing costs for which you will be liable. These charges will reduce any net profit or increase your losses. For more information please visit our website.

This table shows the different types of cost categories and their meaning

One-off costs	Spread	All our platforms	The difference between the buy and sell price is called the spread.
	Currency conversion	All our platforms	The fee charged for converting realised profit/loss from the instrument currency to the account currency.
Ongoing costs	Financing costs	All our platforms	The financing cost for every day you keep the position open. Depending on the position held (e.g. long or short) and our prevailing interest rates, your account may be credited or debited with the financing cost.

Liquidation Level

Any open positions you have on your account may be automatically closed if your available funds fall below 80% of the required margin to have those positions open.

How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

CFDs are intended for short-term trading, in some cases intraday, and are generally not suitable for long-term investments. There is no recommended holding period, no cancellation period and therefore no cancellation fees. You can open and close a CFD on shares at any time during market hours.

How can I complain?

If you wish to make a complaint, you should contact our Client Support Team on +357 22 277777, by emailing support@10TradeFX.com. If you do not feel that your complaint has been resolved satisfactorily, you may refer your complaint to the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission (CySEC). See <https://cysec.gov.cy/en-GB/home/> for further information. If your complaint is about an advisory or discretionary manager acting on your account, please contact the firm providing the service. You can also refer to the European Commission's Online Dispute Resolution Platform, however it is likely that you will be referred to the CySEC.
